

Utopia (intervention song) Bec Matthews 26.6.09 for the video visit digitalpill.tv

Breathe into the light, as you take in the new day
Hold no illusions of the past, or on whom you lay the blame
Present, may you be to the challenges you face
And see beyond your good intentions, your intentions for this place

Utopia

Fortunate are those who have chosen their own way
Autonomous we pride ourselves in the direction that we take Consequence arise from the choices that we make
And we can never turn back time and things will never be the same

Utopia

Transparency, when will it come of age
Curious the twists and turns the path of truth must take
Privilege is a right won many ways
Who's rights extend beyond the rest
Beyond the people that they play
We who tread so lightly, frustration growing every day
So hard to reconcile the feelings that I face while I'm away

Those people on the ground, seem to get such little say
Policy made to meet agenda, one person getting their own way
Take a look around, before you say what you have to say
One size fits all a certain failure, have we learnt nothing
Since we came to stay.

Bureaucracy, when will it come of age
Curious the twists and turns the path enlightenment must take
